

Role Description

Position:	Entertainments Team – Pink Coat
Department:	Programme (Entertainment)
Responsible to:	Stewarding Team Leader Programme Team Leader (as appropriate) Team Leader / Deputy Team Leader of Entertainment
Role Summary:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Creating an amazing atmosphere and environment for participants every day at BrumJam. ● Participant safety during entertainment programme. ● Supporting and running entertainment programme. Butlins had the red coats, Pontins had the Yellow jackets, BrumJam has the Pink Coats. As part of our fabulous Entertainment team your job will be to make sure the participants on camp have a fantastic time during the Entertainment programme. You'll be doing everything from decorating the clubhouse, to marshalling the arena and other place, to running activities on the field. Under the guidance of the entertainment programme and stewarding leads you'll be the wheels that keep the Entertainment at BrumJam in motion. You should be prepared to try your hand at almost everything, often working late into the night clearing up after the last songs been played in the disco. Benefits include a fabulous feeling of a job well done, limitless high fives and access to our pretty legendary cheese board (other non cheese snacks are available). Our friendly team is one where everyone gets stuck in together to get the job done, so having a can do attitude is a must, even it's just making a cuppa for the Head of entertainment, refilling the ball pool, or leading a conga around the arena if it needs doing to keep the party going we do it. At the end of every evening we get together to discuss how the day went and what we can improve, and then we kick back and relax as a team ready for the next days fantastic entertainment.
Key Responsibilities:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Participate in marshalling of arena / nightclub events as directed by the entertainment stewarding lead. ● Help run the programme under the guidance of the entertainment programme leads. ● Attend daily briefings and debriefings as organised by Head/Deputy Head of Entertainment. ● Be welcoming, friendly, and encouraging toward participants and their leaders and help them to experience as much of the entertainment programme as they want. ● Assist in the direction of participants, leaders and other staff in entering, exiting and participating in evening entertainments. ● Act as point of contact for leaders and participants during entertainment programme. ● Any other duties as considered appropriate by the Deputy/Head of Entertainment.

Person Specification

Experience and skills:	Preferable to have previous experience of scouting and guiding events, particularly camping, but not essential. Ideally some experience of sections aged 10+ years. <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Ability to work as part of a team● Cheerful in the face of hordes of young people● Able to work late into the evenings● Sense of humour and willingness to muck in with a variety of tasks, some of which you won't be expecting
Personal Attributes:	One weekend pre-Jamboree for trainings, briefings and socialisation. Arrival one day before start of Jamboree to assist in our departments build Member of Girlguiding or The Scout Association (or similar WAGGGS or WOSM affiliated country). Awareness that the Evenings Entertainment team may not have the same access to the staff activities provided due to their working hours IT literate and willing to communicate via Skype, Facebook and Google Documents.